

DUDGEON

SINCE 1947

Suzani Banquette

Seen from above before departing our Fulham workshop for a house in the South of France, which was owned by a Russian family and designed by an eminent Scottish interior designer. We took inspiration from our original Morocco banquette, and the design features an asymmetric shape, large round feet and splendid wooden red acorn finials. The piece is covered in several panels of wonderful Suzani fabric.