

DUDGEON

SINCE 1947

Dudgeon's Mae West Sofa

Dudgeon created this sofa for a house in Wentworth owned by a Russian. The fabric has a white base with black velvet spots applied randomly. It featured in the master bedroom and was more comfortable than it may look. The final shape of the back was agonised over by the interior designer, Kirill Istomin, but he got it right!